PRICE, 5 CENTS

IMP IN GRAND FORM.

A fender on a street car; a race where horses carry weight for age. That the public outcry for the conservation of life has borne fruit is evidenced by the first, and the other shows that the principle paramount in importance when racing was framed, i. e., the improvement in the thoroughbred horse is still insisted upon. The day is near when all street cars will be supplied with fenders, although one year ago the scheme was pronounced Utopian. Let it be hoped that soon in a fair proportion of races horses will carry weight for age.

Harlem was favored with ideal racing weather, the air being warm, with just enough breeze blowing to temper the rays of a sun which was more that of July than September.

The Forward Stakes, $1,000 added, seven-eighths of a mile, for two-year-olds, penalties and allowances, was the feature of the day. It was of the value of $1,080 to the winner, while the second horse received $200 and the third $100 out of the stakes. Well might it have been dubbed "The Oasis Stakes," seeing that it appeared to the thirsty racegoer in a desert of selling stakes, and here, by accident, each of the starters carried exactly weight for age. Again, the owners represented were in greater part such as are of the greater prominence on the western turf, there being carried the colors of J. W. Schorr & Son, T. C. McDowell and W. E. Applegate. In reputation none of the youngsters classed with Spirituelle, and she was held by the twenty bookmakers at 3 to 5 at the opening of the betting, the odds of 5 to 1 against each of the others being posted. When the horses went to the post it was 7 to 10 Spirituelle (27 against 100 place), 5 to 1 each Hardy Pardee and Jolly Roger; 6 to 1 Sea Lion. To a perfect start at the second essay Jolly Roger and Hardy Pardee cut out in front by two open lengths, the others paired, although after a quarter had been covered Sea Lion was last by two lengths, while Spirituelle had moved up to Jolly Roger, he one length behind Hardy Pardee. The latter and Spirituelle got three lengths of daylight over Jolly Roger before the home stretch was reached but it was plainly to be seen that unless the leaders were phenomenal animals, the pace must kill both. Spirituelle got away from Hardy Pardee at the last three-sixteenths post and Applegate's colt swerving gave it up. Sea Lion had been called on at the turn for home but failed to respond, and was losing instead of gaining ground. Not so, however, with Jolly Roger, who ridden in a masterly manner, had not been thrown off his stride when outrun at the start, and so rating along he was ready to run when called upon. With clocklike stride he came on, and before the last eighth was passed Reiff was looking back. Jolly Roger won in a gallop, as he pleased from Spirituelle, who was lengths better than Hardy Pardee upon which colt many hundreds went on at the post for place, Cass Sloan being one of the losers. Thus did the Forward Stakes fall to an owner, J. A. Vetter, who is but little known.

A cracking good finish Pella B won the first race from Major Bell, both first and second horses coming from the rear in the homestretch to which The Grinder (favorite at 3 to 1) showed the way, after breaking quickest to an excellent start, Mr. Dwyer shooting off the seventeen maidens well bunched at the first attempt. The Grinder landed third money from Rival Dare, who, fourth, turning for home, looked the winner at the last one hundred yards. Alpina was second to The Grinder to the last eighth and Boardman was third to the last quarter.

If ever a man "played unlucky," as the saying goes, that man is John Rodegap. After having had at Washington Park the misfortune to see his filly, Her Favor, cut down in a stake race that she had an excellent chance to win, he since that time has kept up his clip with accidents of all kinds. Yesterday the climax came when Don Orsino, a 9 to 10 favorite, (considered by horsemen a legitimate 1 to 3 chance), fell as the horses in the second race passed the judges the first time. Don Orsino was in the rear of a close bunch and it is probable that being a trifle rank McDonald was unable to keep him from stumbling on some horse's heels. At any rate, the favorite fell, and his jockey, performing some circumgyratory movements, rolled into the timers' stand. McDonald was to have ridden Sea Lion in the Forward Stakes, but T. Murphy was substituted. Branch led the party by three open lengths up the back stretch, although Barataria had got off in front. The latter was a presumable "good thing," and was heavily backed. He finally managed to finish alongside Friar John, two lengths behind Branch, who lasted in front until the last eighth, where Prince Blazes, on the inside and Muskadine on the outside pinned him in and the trio hung together until the last few strides when Branch fell away. The finish was exciting enough for anybody, but Rutter outrode Everett and brought Prince Blazes home a neck to the good of Muskadine.

After three breakaways in the fourth race Dare II. kicked Dunois on the off hind leg just above the hock, and as Assistant Starter McKnight walked Ryan's horse about he limped so badly that all bets were declared off. Dunois excused, and a new book made. Imp's price was at once posted, 7 to 10, the post price in the original book, in which she opened at 3 to 5. Carnero now opened at 2 to 1 instead of the 3 to 1 of the first book made, and as to the others the odds were practically unchanged. Again there was a delay at the post. Once away Imp galloped to the lead, and up the back stretch led Dare II. by two lengths an advantage she retained throughout, winning with her head swinging as if out for a fast work. Dare II. beat Carnero seven lengths, and Charina was somewhere up the stretch. Instead of the twenty-eight pounds Imp was conceding horses of her own age, she could probably have carried 130 pounds and won. Charles Brossman only had $200 on Imp.

"Skeets" Martin was thrown from Midian just as the barrier went up and Tom Ryan's hard luck with Dunois was thus accentuated. Midian ran the course riderless. The newcomer Buck Moran, against which "Bluff" laid a fancy wager of 1000 to 1, might just as well have been at home. Dave Waldo assumed command for a quarter but here May W. headed him and he thus soon began to quit, finally finishing at the sixteenth post when Storm King passed the judges. This horse had laid well back until Dave Waldo had taken the wind out of the favorite and Rutter sending him along on the turn, was close to the favorite at the last quarter. He caught and passed her an eighth out, and was unnecessarily whipped home, because when headed May W. began to stop. Storm King won by three open lengths. The jockeys had been called to the stand before the race by Col. Clark. Dave Waldo has been noted for being the fastest horse seen this year in Chicago at the distance of three-eighths of a mile, May W. "cut his comb," but if her jockey wished to get her beaten he could have done nothing better than to brush her off with Dave Waldo.

The last race was won by a bay gelding brought up from St. Louis to make a killing. Both George Rose and Marcus Cartwright were handed a century at 6 to 1 and taking the stranger's money still carried Barrisso up to 8 to 1. It was a hot betting race, Amelia Fonso being particularly well played because Rutter, on her back, had his winning clothes on, he having ridden four winners in Pella B, Prince Blazes, Imp and Storm King. Lady Juliet, off in front to a splendid start, led all the way and was only nipped at the wire by Barrisso. W. C. T. and Abe Furst were second and third to the home stretch, the first named landing the third money. Amelia Fonso showed fifth on the upper turn but could never get through. Farley ran fairly well. There was a jumble at the finish. Hessville being noticeable as having no chance.

"Dick" Dwyer and Arthur McKnight will do the starting at Windsor, Canada, where racing begins Tuesday next. The assistant starter is much elated over the recovery of a gold ring which he lost on the day when Vim and Vinegar threw him in the mud at the five-eighths post. The mud was several inches deep, but the ring was found yesterday at the three-quarter post by the new owner of Vim and Vinegar.

Charles Brossman, the well known trainer of Imp, is the owner of Pella B., and after her win was kept busy for an hour cashing tickets ($10 a crack), which all bore the highest odds, 20 to 1. Brossman is, of all men hereabouts, the most ready to back his own horse.

Henry Johnson, of New Orleans, is in town for a visit of two weeks. This popular race track owner and sporting man is looking like a two-year-old after a summer's sojourn at all the summer resorts on the calendar.

D. Cameron, owner of May W., bet $1,000 on his mare and was "hot" when he saw his boy chasing Dave Waldo. It seems Col. Clark had told the jockeys to ride from post to finish.

Mrs. Byron McClelland will most likely start Ways and Means for the Stallion Stakes at Hawthorne.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

The force working in the book at Newport, presided over by John Parnell McInerney, constitute Virginia Carroll's regular crew. Carroll booked at the St. Louis meeting where he is reported to have won $12,000 on the season. At the close of the St. Louis meeting the big Virginian went to Hot Springs, and his crew, one of whom is a nephew of George Bennett, came to Newport and went to work in McInerney's book. They have received a letter from Carroll, who is still at Hot Springs, directing them to join him in Chicago October 1. Carroll will book the last two weeks of the season at Hawthorne, after which he and his force will go to Frisco to do business at the meetings out there the coming winter.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Forbush is the smallest thoroughbred ever seen on the western circuit. For a horse of his size he is easily the best ever seen in this country. The little gelding stands about 14.3, and hardly weighs much over 700 pounds. The day he ran Ed Farrell to a dead heat at a mile and a sixteenth, he stepped the first mile in 1:41 flat, with 65 pounds up. In the match with Johnson he will carry 100 pounds. Forbush is as sound as a dollar. His underpinning is perfect, and the track can't be too hard for him.—St. Louis Republic.

Louis Ezell has bought Paul Kauvar for the reputed price of $1,500. Paul Kauvar at his best is a decidedly useful horse and as Ezell is one of the most capable of trainers is likely to prove a profitable investment.

E. S. Gardner & Son's string will return from the New York tracks in time to take part in the Latonia meeting. They have been fairly successful on the eastern tracks. White Frost and Bangle having each won races in good company.

MEDDLER TO BE SOLD.

The recent death of Mr. W. H. Forbes leads to the disposal of the carefully selected horses of the Neponset breeding establishment. They are all to be sold at Morris Park October 15. The most interesting feature of the occasion will be the sale of the famous sire Meddler, and the general expectation is that he will bring a great price. Of this young and splendidly bred horse a contemporary says:

"Meddler cost his late owner $75,000 at public sale in London, when the stable of Squire Abingdon Baird was disposed of, so keen was the competition to secure the colt, which had been unbeaten as a two-year old, and was then on the threshold of his three-year-old career. Through the death of the "Squire" Meddler's engagements had become void and Mr. Forbes brought the colt to this country to place at the head of his stock farm in Massachusetts, with what success the turf records of 1897 show, for, with scarcely an exception, all of his two-year-old representatives last season—his first crop—earned brackets, the best being Previous, which not only beat Hamburg last year, but also finished in front of him this season for the Belmont Stakes. Meddler is a grand individual, and no horse ever imported to this country had better credentials for the success as a sire which he has thus early demonstrated. His sire, St. Gatian, like himself, never knew defeat as a 2-year-old. At three he ran a dead heat for the Derby, and subsequently won the Cesarewitch Handicap, the Gold Vase at Ascot and the Jockey Club Cup at Newmarket three consecutive times. His prestige was such that the Germans had to pay $70,000 to secure him for the stud. Meddler's dam, Busybody, daughter of Petrarch, winner of the Two Thousand Guineas, St. Leger and Gold Cup at Ascot, etc., was the "crack" mare of her day and sold at auction as a 3-year-old for $44,000. She was only beaten once, when, carrying top weight, she met defeat by a head for the Dewhurst Plate. Her victories included the One Thousand Guineas and Oaks. Her dam, the famous Spinaway, also won the One Thousand Guineas and Oaks, as well as eight other races at three years of age, and she in turn was a daughter of the renowned Queen Bertha, the best mare of her day, which also won the Oaks.

LATONIA'S PROGRAM.

The fall meeting of the Latonia Jockey Club, which opens Saturday, promises to be a racing event of greater importance than similar meetings of the past years. There are already a lot of good horses hereabouts, and more are coming from Chicago and some from the east. The liberal stakes and unusually attractive purse program are drawing them.

The stake event for the opening day is the Tobacco Stakes, at one mile, with forty-nine exceptionally good entries. As many of them are ready, and on the ground, there is sure to be a big field go to the post. The other stake dates are as follows:

Tuesday, October 4—The Kimball, for two-year-old colts; six furlongs; 99 entries.

Saturday, October 8—The Latonia Autumn Prize, for three-year-olds; one mile and one furlong.

Thursday, October 13—The Zoo Zoo Stakes, for two-year-old fillies; six furlongs.

Saturday, October 15—The Cincinnati Hotel Handicap, for three-year-olds and upward; one mile and a furlong.

Tuesday, October 18—The Covington Autumn Stakes, for two-year-olds; five and a half furlongs.

Thursday, October 20—The Kenton Stakes, for three-year-olds and upward; six furlongs.

Saturday, October 22—The Kentucky Central Stakes, for two-year-olds; one mile.

All these stakes have liberal added money and will be worth from $1,500 to $2,500.—Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

J. J. Marklein has returned from the east, reaching Cincinnati with a string of fourteen horses, members of which were the crack two-year-old filly Matanza, Millstream, George B. Cox and others capable of earning feed bills. Most of the horses in his charge will be raced at the approaching Latonia autumn meeting.

John Hannigan, the veteran and successful trainer, acting for J. H. Holt, has sold to Henry Benzinger the three-year-old gelding Dashaway, by Sir Dixon—Birdie T. Dashaway, though still a maiden, has shown great speed in his few starts, and gives promise of proving a useful kind of horse. The price was reported to be $500.

Old Sir Walter's victory yesterday will please all admirers of one of the gamest horses that ever wore a bridle. To defeat such horses as George Keene, Bangle and Macy, even with the weights in his favor, is really a remarkable feat for a horse eight years old.

R. Tucker has sold Eleanor Holmes and The Geezer to L. Haas, of Columbus, Ohio.

Winner—B. f. by Patron—Gloss. Off at first break to a perfect start. Won in the hardest kind of a drive; second, third and fourth were driving just as hard. It was a spectacular finish. Pella B. coming strong, just as up in the last stride. At the sixteenth pole it looked as though The Grinder would win. He weakened though in the last twenty yards. All four horses at the finish were strongly ridden. Boardman saved ground throughout. Bloss hugging the rail from flag fall to finish. Major Bell is game. He was under a terrific drive the last quarter. Rival Dare performed creditably. So did Thought So, who had all the bad luck in the race. Considering the size of the field the start may hardly again be equaled.

Scratched—Kinglet, 113. Overweights—Judge Wofford, 3 pounds. Pella B., place, 6 to 1; show, 3 to 1. Major Bell, place, 2 to 1; show, even. The Grinder, show, 4 to 5.

Winner—B. g. by Blazes—Bettie Prince. Off at first break to a good start. Won driving; all the others were driving also. Prince Blazes is more than a useful horse. He is a consistent performer, and can run either in the mud or on the dry, as is shown by this race. He won by sheer gameness, greatly aided by a competent ride. At the head of the stretch all of the boys, with the exception of Gray and Rutter, swung wide. The latter two skinned the rails and thereby saved a lot of ground. Had Everett, on Muskadine, been in a position to save ground he surely would have beaten Prince Blazes, for the amount saved there was a great advantage at the finish. Muskadine was saddle skirts in front of Prince Blazes at the sixteenth pole, but weakened in the closing drive. They were all in a close bunch at the finish, making it a good performance for Branch. Barataria ran far below his last race. The ride he got was all right, and it would be hard to find an excuse for his poor showing. Don Orsino fell passing the stand. Neither horse nor boy was injured. Branch seemed to be the cause of the accident.

Scratched—Official, 100. Prince Blazes, place, 2 to 1; show, 4 to 5. Muskadine, place, 3 to 1; show, even. Branch, show, 6 to 1.

8738 THIRD RACE—7-8 Mile. 2-year-olds. Allowances. Forward Stakes. $1,000 added; value to winner $1,080; $10 entrance; $40 to start; $200 to second; $100 to third.

Winner—B. c. by Order—Happy Sally II. Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won handily; the others were driving. Jolly Roger galloped all the way. His form reversal was startling. Reiff placed him nicely down the back stretch and galloped over Spirituelle when ready. He seems to be a moody colt and the chances are that in his last races he spunked. Spirituelle did not seem to have her usual dash of speed. She never could shake Hardy Pardee off and when called upon had nothing to respond with. Sea Lion has certainly trained off. He never was a dangerous factor.

Scratched—Survivor, 118. Jolly Roger, place, 6 to 5. Spirituelle, place, 27 to 100.

Winner—Blk. f. by Wagner—Fondling. Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second under punishment; third eased at the end. Imp only galloped all the way. She raced those behind her into the ground the first three-quarters and had an easy task the rest of the journey. Considering the amount of weight she was conceding her race was a phenomenal one from a time standpoint. The filly stepped the last mile in 1:40 flat, which was caught by many competent timers. Dare II, under light weight, ran an improved race. He was frisky at the post and kicked both Imp and Dunois. The latter was excused, all bets declared off, and the usual time allowed for a new book. After the race Reiff could not pull Dare II up and before being stopped the colt ran away a mile. Carnero ran nowhere near the race he is capable of. Holden was not strong enough to do him justice.

Scratched—Cherry Leaf, 104; Dunois, 94; Second Chance, 91; Charley Christy, 106. Imp, place, 1 to 3. Dare II, place, even.

Winner—Blk. c. by Whistle Jacket—Grenadine. Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won handily at the end; second whipped off; third eased up. Storm King was at his best, perfectly handled and ran a grand race. Rutter laid away with him the first part of it and thus avoided the early pace. Had May W. been ridden the same way there would have been more of a contest at the end. As it was Beauchamp went after Dave Waldo and completely pumped the filly out. She runs best from behind, and the boy's instructions were to ride her that way. Storm King was under a mild drive on the turn, but through the stretch the result was never in doubt. Dave Waldo was in where he did not belong. He dislikes a route and there was speed enough here to smother him. Midian seemed to cross his legs as the barrier went up and fell. Neither horse nor jockey was injured.

Scratched—Cherryflame, 107; Timemaker, 110; Heigh Ho, 101. Storm King, place, 1 to 3.

Time, 2:44, 49, 1:02, 1:15. Winner—B. g. 3, by Volante—Bertha. Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won in a hard drive of four horses. Had Abe Furst been anything like a good horse he surely would have won. He had clear sailing, was well ridden and had no excuses. He was stopping fast at the finish and was lucky to be third. Barisso was a heavily played good thing and won through sheer gameness. Lady Juliet "backed up" in the last twenty yards. This a speedy filly but cannot stand grief. George Lee ran far the best race. He was far back of the bunch at the half mile ground and finished like a lion. Keep him in mind. W. C. T. had speed. Amelia Fonso could never get through. Scratched—Majesta, 104; Queen Safie, 104; Idle Hour, 107; Greyhurst, 104; Blanche, 98; Hester, 104.

Winner—B. f. by Hanover—Reclaire.
Start straggling. Won driving. Harmonica may have been best. She got a flying start and was lucky and well handled. She finished gamely and likes a route. Composer finished strong. Tyran was lucky and is in extra good form for him. Imitation was a good horse today but a bad sendoff and the big field disposed of his chances. Ordeal closed a big gap from a bad beginning. He will do with a good jockey up. Dr. Vaughan and Rock Dove improved their positions. Dr. Parker is best in mud. Throw his race out. Lady Exile was off badly and poorly ridden. Harmonica, place, 2 to 1; show, even. Composer, place, 4 to 5; show, 1 to 2. Tyran, show, 6 to 5.

Winner—B. f. by Ben Strome—Whipcord.
Start straggling. Won easily. Whiplash was best. She got away poorly, was pocketed and not well handled, but was favored by the killing pace set by the two leaders. The Kentuckian was used up by the hot pace the first part. He finished strong and game at the end after appearing to be beaten. Havelock was run into the ground. He has a wonderful turn of speed and is game. Tendresse closed ground steadily, but was overweighted. Rusher was shut off at the eighth pole. He appears to be good. The others were badly outclassed. Scratched—La Penitente, 114; Water Girl, 105. Whiplash, place, even; show, 1 to 2. The Kentuckian, place, 6 to 5; show, 2 to 5. Havelock show, 3 to 5.

Time, 2:54, 5:0, 1:15, 1:41, 1:54.

Winner—B. h. by Midlothian—La Scala.
Start good. Won driving. Sir Walter ran a splendid game race and, driving under the whip the last three-eighths, wore Keene down. The race should improve him. George Keene ran the race of his life. He was made too much use of and let down too soon, but is a grand horse and finished gamely. Macy was overweighted but ran well. He was under a drive from the start. Bangle was outclassed at the weights. James fell off Sir Gawain. Scratched—Algol, 132; Handball, 113. Sir Walter, place, 8 to 5; show, 1 to 2. George Keene, place, 4 to 5.

Winner—B. c. by Newcourt—Malada.
Start straggling. Won easily. Tom Collins was lucky and well handled. He was very good today. Kenmore Queen was probably best, but she got away poorly and was pocketed and generally unlucky. She closed strongly at the end. Blarneystone ran his race. He stopped badly at the finish and is best in mud. Lady Disdain ran finely and should win soon. Oxnard was all but left and closed a big gap. He is good. The others were outclassed. Scratched—Wasteful, 106; Blueaway, 106; High Jinks, 106; Calculation, 103; Glonoine, 110. Tom Collins, place, 24 to 1; show, 6 to 5. Kenmore Queen, place, 3 to 5. Blarneystone, show, 1 to 2.

8723 SIXTH RACE—1 3-4 Miles. $750 added. 4-year-olds and upward.

Winner—B. g. by Surefoot—Onoma.
Start good. Won easily. Moslem outclassed the field. Lady Dainty was poorly handled, but was at her best. Marshall was overweighted. Elcid is of no account. Governor Budd has been raced to death and could not run at all today. Scratched—Snowdown, 150; Iranian, 130. Moslem, place, 3 to 5. Lady Dainty, place, 6 to 5.

Winner—Br. c. by Hayden Edwards—Fannie S.
Post 7 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Carlotta C came away without an effort at the end. She was much the best. Wilfred Laurier went to pieces in the final furlong. Earl Fonso swung wide in the stretch and lost ground. Howell was no help to Laurentian. This was not Bob Leach's race. He had no speed whatever. Scratched—Seidenbach, 90.

Overweights—Tamora, 4 pounds; Sister Mamie, 5; Tricotrin, 4.
Corrected weights—Carlotta C, 104; Earl Fonso, 103.
Carlotta C, place, 1 to 2. Laurentian, place, 3 to 1; show, even. Earl Fonso, show, 1 to 2.

Time, 2:54, 5:14, 1:174, 1:454.

Winner—Ch. g. by Esher—Tribby.
Post 5 minutes. Start fair. Won cleverly; second easily. Guilder saved ground turning into the stretch and finished strong on the inside. He was drawing away at the end. Leoncie was badly messed about by Ross. Better handled she would have won. Nigger Baby ran as if short and was eased up in the stretch. Tillie W. hung when it came to a drive. Scratched—Nover, 105.

Overweights—Nigger Baby, 4 pounds.
